SENATE FIGHT IS ON

Compromise Silver Measure to Be Pushed.

POPULISTS WILL OPPOSE IT

If the Compromise Fails Cloture Will be Pressed as a Means to Close Behate, Wannimiroz, Oct. 22 - This week will openin congress with better promise of a breas in the descrook in the secute than has been exident for many days. It is the intention of the managers of the compromise movement to place their proposition before the body at the carhast possible moment, probably tomorrow or the next day. Then it will be the question of ways and means to secure action upon it for strong opposition is expected from the popular senators, and there is no means of knowing what measure of support can be expected from the republicana. If necessary, however, there may be a resort to cloture. Such a proposition would be much stronger. when endorsed by a majority of democrat senators than when it was broached before, and there is no reason to suppose that the vice-president would not in the question to a sote. The Voorhees amendment to the rules would in this event be the meanant closing the debute. and as this has already occupied more than the thirty days specified in the new rule, the adoption of the Voorhees rule mould result in a vote upon the bill and amendments very speedily.

Even if the compromise movement should full again, it is understood that the cluture rule will be pressed, proba-bly beginning Tuesday, and it is ex-pected by Senator Hill that the few conservative democrats in favor of repeal, who so far have declined to sign his petition to the vice president, in the hope that by an agreement on a compromise the necessary for cloture would be re-moved, will then fail into line and sign the petition.

Work in the House.

The development of the program in the house this week will depend upon the course of events in the senate. the latter body should speedily adopt the silver compromise now imminent, or make any other disposition of the pending question, it is the belief of Speaker Crisp and other members of the committee on rules, which is the managing force of the house, that a recess for two or three works, or possi-bly even final adjournment, of the extraordinary session would follow. in a day or two. The announcement, therefore, that an early settlement of the silver question in the Senate was probable brought on a season of waiting. In the meantime, however, the establishment of a uniform system of bankruptcy, reported by the committee on the patients, is on the calcular for executive pariors. Or A. Westnesday's possions, Dr. A. of time to the order. That will enable the boose, in case the opportunity prescuts itself, to consider a proposition for a recess or adjournment, either to act quickly on the backruptcy bill and get it out of the way, or to postpone present definite action and take it up again when congress shad reassemble.

Some Important House Bills. In case congress continues in session through the week, beside the banksupply tall there are several measures on the calendars which are likely to be called up for ection or consideration in the morning hours. Prominent among them are the bills authorizing a set ment of the accounts of Florida with the Called States; directing the appoint meat of a committee to revise the perwomen of the many; to amend the a state commerce act; to submit the famone Mediarrahan claim to the court of private hand claims. The bill to regu of decements will be the first business after resuling the journal temorrow, the house having adjourned on Saturday pending a vote on its passage, the roll and the lowing to quirtum.

World's Fair Visitors' Fast Ride -- Car Stopped Thirty Feet From the Phor--Passengers Stupelied.

Caucago, Oct. 22 - Thirteen visitors to the fair feil in an elevator 200 feet from the landing under the great roof of the manufactures building at 8:20 o'clock last night. Their lives were saved by the brakes on the ear, which caught and held it thirty feet from the floor. Elevator man, Ben Sharp, had just started from the landing way, twenty-eight feet from the roof, with a car crowded with passengers. For some reason he suddenly lost control of the ear, and it shot downward at a tromendous speed. The car is supposed to have an automatic check, which prevents it from exceeding a certain rate of speed. The heavy load caused it to drop 230 feet before the check worked. There was still a distance of thirty feet to the ground and with all the efforts of the elevator man the car could not be moved. The score of people in the ear were at first stupified by the sudden descent, and it was not until the car stopped that they realized their danger. Over half the passengers were women and it was all the men in the car

IS A DEEP INTRIGUE

Cabinet Feud May Force Caprivi to Retire.

BISMARCK ORGANS JUBILANT

Emperor Will Have to Take a Hand or Business of Reichstag Will Be Paralyzed.

[Copyright 1803 by the United Press.] Bestin, Oct. 22 - The semi-official dailies continued until Friday morning to deny the reports of dissensions between Chancellor Caprivi and Count Botho Von Eulenburg, Prussian mints ter president. All references to a quar rel between the premiers were pro nounced as pure inventions. On Friday and Saturday, however, the inspired ed itors were dumb although the old reports were being revived in various forms. The fact is that a ministerial crisis suddenly became imminent and the opposition editors, while making too much of the cabinet foud are in most respects telling the facts. Eulenberg precipitated the trouble. He told the emperor he would resign in case Caprivi's concessions to Russia in the tariff negotiations should be approved. liching this estensible reason for wishing to resign, however, is a deep intrigue in which Dr. Bosse, Dr. Miquel and Herr in which Dr. Bosse, Dr. Miquel and Herr Von Heiden, all cabinet ministers, have played leading parts. Caprivi has not interfered in the Prussian election cam-paign. He has left Eulenburg free hand in every detail. Nevertheless the agra-rians openly accuse him of assisting can-didates who favor a tariff reform policy. These charges have produced such a state of anarchy in the corps of the Prussian officials as has not been known before in the kingdom.

Emperor Will Have to Interfere.

This splitting of the bureaucracy must be remedied by the emperor. Unless he interferes to harmonize the factions before the assembling of the reichstag, all business of that body will be paralyzed. Already the feud has passed the boundaries of Prussia and Prussian parties and is confusing political issues in other parts of the empire. Bismarck's organs reiterate jubilantly, "We told you so." The Hamburger Nachrichten recurs to the old contention that the posts of Chancelfor and Prussian premier must be held by one man as during the Bismarck regime. The only way out of the present diffi-culty it adds, is that Caprivi retire, leaving Eulenburg free to make the gov-ernment's policy. The men nearest to the emperor adhere to Caprivi who retains the entire confidence of his sover-eign. It is admitted generally that the right is a hard one for the chancellor. He has a few strong friends and a host of powerful enemies. The agrarian members of the Russian trenty commission, finding the chancel lor unyielding, have abandoned their attitude of uncompromising apposition to the treaty and have offered to assent to grain on the condition that it shall not be more than 5 marks per metre-cent-ner; also that the duty shall be raised. as the value of the rouble falls, and lowcred as the rouble rises. Obviously such an arrangement would open the way to a wild speculation in rouble notes. That the agrarians will concede even the small amount indicated is a #### sign of weakness of their position. Misled Emperor William.

General Von Werder, German ambas-sador to Russia who is returning for a three weeks sojourn in Weisbaden to his official post had an audience with the emperor in Potsdam yesterday. The meeting could hardly have been agree able to the general as he misled the emperor and Caprivi concerning the exar's instructions to Baron Mohrenbeim and Admiral Avelan before the French fetes. Nothing could have been more explicit than the czar's assurances that he did not desire to encourage French demonstrations. An official Russian mission is making the round of the European capitals to proclaim the message of peace. It was expected in Berlin that possibly French fervor would infect the Russians, perhaps even the czar, but matters have gone further. It is significant that, since the czar's visit to the French cruiser Isly off Copenhagen, the Russian press has been allowed to run riot in the matter of Russo French relations. On Friday for instance, the Moscow Gazette pro-claimed that henceforth France and Rossin would go hand in hand, shoulder to shoulder through good and evil fortune, and would remain allies forever, slefying the triple alliance on land, menacing England's supremacy on the sea-

Czar May Have to Explain.

The St. Petersburg Novoe Wremjahas recorded or invented an incident not reported by the French press. The story is that Admiral Avelan received in Paris a deputation from Alsace, and after receiving from them an address distinctly hostile to Germany, expressed hope that Aleace and Lorraine would be won back by France. If Count Meanster should be able to verify this story the emperor would be as likely as not to demand from the czar satisfaction of some sort.

Signor Ciolitti, the Italian premier, has thoroughly disappointed German financiers with his exposition of Italian finances and his scheme to meet present difficulties. All chance of placing an Italian lean here has vanished since he spoke, and it will be necessary for him to resign before the loan can be obists success in the national, Bavarian and Saxon elections have been so notabie that the tone of the congress will be jubilant. The executive officers became convinced that there was a popular demand for a more attractive Sunday fair, and orders were issued to run everything on the wide open plan, the same as on week days, as nearly as possible.
